

I will tell of the kindnesses of the Lord, the deeds for which he is to be praised, according to all the Lord has done for us – yes, the many good things he has done for Israel, according to his compassion and many kindnesses. Isaiah 63:7

Like Isaiah, we want to praise the Lord for all he has done through ICDI.

16 Cabécar women completed the indigenous infant-maternal health promoters' course. God provided funds to employ 8 graduates who work full-time in the Chirripó Reservation. One of our health promoters, Kindria (left), starts nursing school in January. Aroma de Montaña Restaurant (right) opened in partnership with 4 families from the community of Santubal.

– Judith Dunteman, MD

Katrina made girls' dresses and Moby wrap baby carriers (left) that her mom, Katie, brought with her when she came to volunteer in July. – Terri Kruse, ICDI President English students are reading the Bible in their own languages. A friend donated an automatic washing machine.

– Bridget Abbott, English teacher

Village Parkway Baptist's team (left) constructed walls for Centro Emanuel's kitchen and their generosity to provide tools has made my work easier.

– Paul Abbott, Maintenance

With an ICDI microloan, Greivin realized his dream of moving his family back to his hometown and opening an auto mechanic business. Using the Firm Foundations materials, a group of people from local communities meet with us weekly to study God's Word.

– ICDI Director Alekcey Murillo, MD

People from two schools in the reservation worked with me to fix a cable car that traverses the Chirripó River on a main trail used by many students and adults every day. AeroVital (right) donated the flights to transport the 4 towers I fabricated for the Cuen River Bridge. Funds were also provided to finish its foundation and to purchase building supplies for completing the bridge when the rains stop. – Joel Stoll, Carpenter

Our dental clinic waiting area often looks like a day care because we are treating children and educating moms. During our 4 day clinic in the reservation 90 patients were seen. Wendy (left), a Cabécar woman I trained, enjoys assisting me and making dentures. She is an answer to prayer and an amazing asset to the dental staff! – Rebekah Jones, DDS
